

Corey McGinley

Corinne Elizabeth McGinley was born and raised in the Point Breeze neighborhood of Pittsburgh. She attended the Ellis School and Dickinson College where she played both field hockey and lacrosse. Corinne continued her education at Duquesne University and received her Master's Degree in Forensic Science and her Juris Doctor.

Currently, Corinne is a Judicial Law Clerk for the Commonwealth Court of Pennsylvania. Her volunteer work includes the Junior League of Pittsburgh and the Cystic Fibrosis Foundation. Additionally, she is an active member of the Young Lawyers Division of the Allegheny County Bar Association. An avid outdoor enthusiast, Corinne enjoys running, golf, and skiing, as well as supporting her beloved Pittsburgh Steelers.

To learn more about Corey and her to support her fundraising efforts visit her firstgiving page at: <http://www.firstgiving.com/fundraiser/corinnemcginley/2011facescampaign>